

Science in the News!

Name _____

Pick a science news article from the websites and complete the information below.

Source

Author _____

Title of Website _____

Title of Article _____

Date Published _____

What is the main idea of this article?

Use complete sentences to summarize important points (facts, ideas) from the article?

What one thing will you take away from this article? (something unusual or surprising that you learned)

What words were new to you as you read the article?

If you could research and write an article similar to or related to this one, what would it be about? (be specific)
